Dedication

WE DEDICATE TO YOUTH . . .

This book is dedicated to youth with the hope that the goal which they seek will be inspired by a higher power than that which a scientist could provide.

As youth moves, so shall the progress of the world.

APRIL IN PARIS

It is April 1970, and wedding bells are sounding as Kathy Pierce and Bill Beasley leave the church. Yogi Hull, the minister, bids them adios.

Donna and husband, Lyle McCarthy, are among the friends at the wedding. Their chauffeur, Wayne Lambert, drives them to the pier. The redcap, Neil Sandridge, takes their luggage. From the top of the gangplank the bride throws her bouquet and Karen Averill catches it. Since we were so afraid she'd be an old maid, that is sure a relief. And so begins the honeymoon to Paris.

As they stroll along the deck, the happy couple meets the captain, Raymond Farrell, who incidentally was just nursing the nicest hangover he had experienced since the day before. He is shouting at Loren Jacoby, Robert Mignot, and Gary Olmstead, the deckhands, to scrub faster.

They hear music and walk into the dance hall to discover John Stephens, a former classmate, to be band director. Members of the band from their class of '60 include Clarence Tillman, famous sax player and Robert Widener playing the piano, his wife, Betty Isenhower, singer, and Jane Elder drummer.

They see Bob Bouse nearby at a table. It seems he had to leave the country because his bookie joint was raided. They tell the waitress, Barbara Kaufman, to compliment her husband, Kenny Reeves, on the fine meal. A messenger, Jim Thomas, brings a telegram of congratulations from the president of the U.S., to Kay Kramer. Seems Kay really made something of herself. She is running for Presidency. I wonder what that telegram says?

As the boat docks, the two are greeted by the Ambassador of France, Lee Hall, and his wife. Sharon Stitt, the Ambassador's chauffeur, takes them all to the De La Marks Hotel. Sharon is getting acquainted with all the Frenchmen in her business.

As they pass along they notice a large number of women entering a shop. They discovered it was a reducing salon, whose proprietor is Martha Ferris. They see that Karen Yakle has been there for she is now a model.

As they pass along they are approached by Monika Hein who is selling flowers. That is between flights for she is an Air Line Hostess for TWA. Glancing down the street, they see signs of Leach's Funeral Parlor, Chanay's Bootery, Corsets by Peggy Atkins, and Rita Haney's Poodle Shop.

A newsboy is heard calling out the news and he turns out to be Sam Caylor. Listening closer, they hear that Carol Murray and Kathleen Crawford have just landed on Mars on horses.

Finally reaching the Eiffel Tower, the couple gaze fascinated for a few minutes, and then notice a young man. He is George Poole, who is still crying over his lost love in Florida.

The happy pair returns to the hotel and so ends the first day of their "April in Paris."

Class Will

We, the Class of 1960, being of sound mind, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

I, Peg Atkins, will my ugly stick to Mary Garrett.
I, Karen Averill, will my cheerleading ability to Nancy Hull.
I, Bill Beasley, will my ability to write wills to any willing person.
I, Bob Bouse, will my title as God's Gift to Women, to Ronald Johnston.
I, Donna Coughlin, will my ability to blush to Judy Stephens.
I, Kathleen Crawford, will my ability to keep quiet in study hall to Wanda Good.
I, Jane Elder, will my ambition to be a cook at West Point to Nayrea Kohler.
I, Raymond Farrell, will my ability to sleep in American History to Eugene Harris.
I, Lee Hall, will my old map to LeLoup to anyone who needs it.
I, Rita Haney, will my quiet ways to Richard Murray.
I, Jim Hull, will my short hair to Chuck Fiehler, who needs it badly.
I, Monika Hein, will my dating ability with "Chis" to Bonnie Bivins.
I, Betty Isenhower, will my ability to be a 16 year old graduate to Nancy Harris.
I, Loren Jacoby, - - - Leave!!!
I, Kay Kramer, will my seat in American History, which was willed to me by Caroline Greaves, to Sharon Keyse.
I, Lyle McCarthy, will my neat writing ability in Senior English to Ronnie Zahl.
I, Carol Murray, will my ability to be one of the two seniors in the senior play to Mary Garrett.
I, Kathy Pierce, will my American History book to any unsuspecting Junior.
I, Neil Sandridge, will my football pants to Richard Owings.
I, John Stephens, will no ability as I need all I have.
I, Jim Thomas, will my dime on a string for cokes to Claudia Coons.
I, Clarence Tillman, will my careful driving to Roger Thorn.
I, Robert Widener, will any ability I have to anyone who wants it.
I, Wayne Lambert, will my ability to get along with teachers to Junior McDaniels.
I, Harold Leach, will my love for "figures" to Richard Kaufman.
I, Gary Olmstead, will my mild temper to Marvin Caruthers.
I, George Poole, will my enjoyment of cold weather to Don Hrabe.
I, Kenneth Reeves, will my little black book to James Warren.
I, Sharon Stitt, will my ability - - - what ability?
I, Karen Yakle, will my ability to hold a Bouse to guess who.
I, Barbara Kaufman, will my quiet ways to all freshmen, who need them badly.
I, Larry Chanay, will my ability to play the guitar to Oren Aldridge.
I, Sam Caylor, will my ability to be the last senior in the class to any newcomer.
I, Martha Ferris, will my ability to get along with teachers to Melba Todd.
I, Robert Mignot, will my ability to influence teachers to Dennis Barber.
